

JOSEPH PETER KAMVABINGU

computer programmer | Graphic Designer

About Me

I am a 21-year-old professional with extensive experience in computer programming and graphic design, complemented by a strong foundation in office administration. Currently working remotely with Code-tailors, a U.S.-based team, I have developed excellent technical and creative skills, alongside a proven ability to manage administrative tasks efficiently. My experience demonstrates a commitment to excellence, adaptability, and the ability to support organizational objectives effectively.
